

CHARGING THE TANK

To ensure long battery life and the best run time use new alkaline batteries when charging your battle tanks. Initially, it may take 2 or 3 complete charges on your battle tank to obtain the proper run time.

For the battle tank to receive a proper charge it must be securely fastened to the charge base. Make sure the tabs on the charge base are positioned into the battle tank as shown.

